

Brief Explanation of Hadith 5

كُلُّ الْمُسْلِمِ عَلَى الْمُسْلِمِ
 حَرَامٌ دَمُهُ وَمَالُهُ وَعِرْضُهُ

Every Muslim upon other Muslim is sacred:
 his blood, his wealth and his honour.

General Meaning

The life, wealth and honour of a Muslim is of high value in the sight of Allah and must be protected at all cost

Points of Benefit

- 1 The hadith clearly states that harming others either by speech or action is an evil act.
- 2 All life should be protected, especially the life of the Muslims
- 3 All the possessions of a Muslim cannot be taken forcefully nor deceitfully.
- 4 Muslims should refrain from belittling, making fun of nor degrade his Muslim brother/sister.
- 5 Allah made the believers as brothers and sisters so that they love one another and support each other and covers their fault
